Afternoon Report From Carlyn to the Web

Please share some interesting stories about today...

Mckayla and I were pouring plankton into jars and accidentally spilled some out and onto Mckayla's hands it was pretty fun. ZORA

Any favorite wildlife sightings, quotes, games to share?

We saw a bunch of sea lions and a seal. And we named them after our selves. And we played a community building game called turtle hurdle.

Describe the anchorage or moorage where Carlyn is right now:

We are docked at Blake Island and getting ready to go to bed.

Today's weather...

It is sunny and kind of windy

Describe highlights from today's science and sailing watches:

Today I liked testing silica and the phyto plankton and seeing how much there is .

In sailing I liked setting the main sail.

Any questions, concerns, or expectations for tomorrow?

Where will we be sleeping tomorrow?
